CONFECTIONERS FROM FATHER TO SON

1926

The love of confectionery began in 1926, when Marius Ballanger, made artisanal confectionery on the fairgrounds. This expertise quickly became a family affair: Gaston, his son, decided to study the art of confectionery and chocolate. Father and son, worked together to elaborate the House's recipes.

Ballanger is a legacy transmitted from generation to generation.

2016

In 2016, Régis and Victoria opened Confiserie Ballanger on Avenue Jean Medecin in Nice.

In 2013, Régis Ballanger, Gaston's grandson, and his wife, Victoria fully embarked in Ballanger's adventure. They brought an innovative and modern touch to the confectionery fairground tradition.

2020

Birth of the 5th generation of Ballanger

In 2021, they started a new adventure opening the Café Ballanger in the old town of Nice

2021

Since adventure never stops at Ballanger, Régis and Victoria opened their 3rd shop at Galeries Lafayette Cap3000 in 2023.
